HORSE TRIALS PARTICIPATION POLICY 2010

INFORMATION FROM THE CANADIAN EVENTING COMPETITIONS COMMITTEE

Approved by Canadian Eventing Committee November 6, 2009

During 2010, riders will have to qualify to enter the appropriate horse trials division; as well divisions will be split upon skill level. All competitions will be split between Open and Regular, however for participation eligibility purposes, Training eligibility will be based on age and broken down by Junior and Senior criteria. Open Divisions will be for riders who have shown at a higher level or who have more experience as defined in the Table titled PARTICIPATION ELIGIBILITY IN HORSE TRIALS 2010. Regular divisions will be for people starting out, or upgrading to a new level.

An Organizer who holds 4 levels would, if entries warrant hold Pre-Training, Open Pre-Training, Training, Open Training, Preliminary, Open Preliminary, and Intermediate, Open Intermediate. In this way all levels will have an open & a regular division. Thus a horse needing a confidence boost can drop down to a lower level & compete in an Open Division without competing against people who are just starting out Eventing. Also open divisions are where most careers riders will be placed.

In the 2010 season Junior competitors wishing to move up to Training & above competitors must show that they have the required skill level to compete successfully in that division through completion of events at the previous level.

Each year published in the Omnibus is the table PARTICIPATION ELIGIBILITY IN HORSE TRIALS listing the qualifications to enter each division. On the entry form will be a section where the rider will list the qualifications. This information will be used to determine which division the entry competes & to verify that horse/ rider combination has the qualifications to compete at that level. The table will be adjusted annually to suit the needs of the Eventing community. Riders must keep a record of each event results remembering to record all phases results - Dressage: Penalties, Cross Country: Time & Jump Penalties, Jumping - Jumping & Time Penalties PLEASE DO NOT CALL EQUINE CANADA FOR A LISTING OF YOUR RESULTS. Use the Equine Canada web site for a listing of National Competition results: results.equinecanada.ca

If you have questions or concerns please contact a Canadian Eventing Competitions Committee member so that your concerns, comments can be brought to the Committee.
